Seal of Biliteracy

The Seal of Biliteracy is an award issued to recognize a student who has attained literacy in English and one or more other World Languages by high school graduation. The recognition of attaining biliteracy becomes part of the high school transcript and diploma for these students. The Seal of Biliteracy serves to certify attainment of biliteracy for students, employers, and universities.

Students are required to provide evidence of language proficiency in both English and a World Language through the approved assessments listed below. If you have any questions or concerns regarding any of these exams, please contact a high school counselor.
